

I support current IN Do Not Call legislation and do not want to see it modified in any way that would reduce its strength and effectiveness to protect the privacy of IN residents.