

Please keep it possible for families of inmates to use a local number and have the calls forwarded to their homes. It helps the inmates and their families to have supports. Studies have been done that prove inmate contact with loved ones helps to lower recidivism rates and makes a smoother re-entry. Without being able to afford phone calls families lack support and inmates may not be able to get the care and needs that they need to successfully re-habilitate.