

We would rump at having a la carte cable ant satellite subscription option!

There are more channels and programs in my package than I want.

Left the public decide with their choices and get better programming in. Let the "chaff" disappear.