

FCC:

For some reason it is obvious that your commission is unwilling to keep television a safe option for children and families. Therefore, I request that subscribers to cable television have the option of not paying for networks that blatantly broadcast smut. I want "cable choice" to be an option for all families.