

Require cable TV companies to offer customer selected programming packages (a-la-carte) instead of the fixed packaging now provided on a take it or leave it basis. There are many programs provided currently which are either offensive to some, or involving subject matter of no interest to individuals and/or families.