

Regarding broad band form comments

According to the scientific literature, personal doctor diagnosis, and knowledge of others, electromagnetic radiation leads to negative biological health effects. I am commenting that the broadband needs to be transmitted by fiber optics.

Wireless signals have been increasing the population's exposure to electromagnetic radiation. According to the scientists and studies this exposure, is injuring the population's health and well being, both mentally and physically. Wireless has NOT been proven completely harmless.