

my residence is located in a hilly rural area, reception of tv programming was limited before this conversion, but i could at least have a few more options and area news. now i may as well throw the tv out for trash removal, as i have exhausted all resources to get programming other than pbs. of course the other option is to PAY... Cable/satellite..