Dear Ms. Dortch:

On October 19, 2009, Mrs. Paula Boyd of Microsoft met with Renee Crittendon, Chief of Staff and Senior Legal Advisor to Commissioner Clyburn. Mrs. Boyd discussed the importance of adopting policies that will drive greater broadband availability at ever evolving speeds, and reiterated a number of arguments made in Microsoft's previous ex parte filings. Mrs. Boyd also briefly discussed the status of the various proceedings related to unlicensed device operation in the TV white spaces.

Pursuant to the Commission's rules, a copy of this letter is being filed electronically in the above-referenced dockets. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Paula Boyd
