

We respectfully request that the government stay out of the internet. It is doing just fine without them. There is nothing that needs to be changed here.