

I urge and support the efforts toward an open and neutral internet. Holding providers accountable for back end and hidden means of slowing down bandwidth that us users are paying hard earned money for. Thank you.