Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Friday, October 23, 2009, Mr. Fred Humphries and Mrs. Paula Boyd of Microsoft met with Commissioner Baker and Charles Mathias. Mr. Humphries and Mrs. Boyd discussed the importance of adopting policies that will drive greater wireless and wireline broadband availability at ever evolving speeds, and reiterated a number of arguments made in Microsoft's previous ex parte filings. They also discussed the importance of the TV white spaces and other unlicensed spectrum.

Pursuant to the Commission's rules, a copy of this letter is being filed electronically in the above-referenced dockets. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Paula Boyd
