MOTION TO ACCEPT LATE-FILED REPLY COMMENTS OF HARRIS CORPORATION

Harris Corporation (“Harris”) hereby requests that the reply comments concurrently submitted in the above-captioned proceeding be accepted and given the same consideration as reply comments that were filed in a timely manner. A good faith effort was made to submit reply comments within the appropriate filing period. However, as the result of an administrative oversight, reply comments were not filed by November 2, 2009. Granting the instant motion would be in compliance with the Commission’s established policies and would not prejudice any other participant in the proceeding.¹ Furthermore, acceptance of Harris’ reply comments will promote the development of a complete record.² For the foregoing reasons Harris respectfully requests that the Commission grant this Motion to Accept Late-Filed Reply Comments.

¹ See, e.g., In the Matter of Revision of the Commission’s Rules to Ensure Compatibility with Enhanced 911 Emergency Calling Systems, Second Report and Order, 19 FCC Rcd. 16964 at note 28 (rel. Aug. 25, 2004) (accepting late filed reply comments, on the Commission’s own motion, because the reply comments did not prejudice any party in the proceeding).

² See, e.g., In the Matter of Rules and Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, Report and Order, 18 FCC Rcd. 14014, 14142, ¶ 220 (rel. July 3, 2003) (accepting late filed comments and waiving the requirements of 47 C.F.R. § 146(b) in the interest of having a complete and accurate record).

Respectfully submitted,

HARRIS CORPORATION
