

Let FCC please DENY the CTIA's petition for declaratory ruling. Stop eroding property values and local control of antenna siting. Local, state and federal taxpayers should be in control of their property value and related decisions, not an unaccountable for-profit industry association. FCC should give preference to wired/ fiber optic transmission, which are more energy efficient, secure, and environmentally friendly.