

In China the internet is censored by the government. In America we must maintain net neutrality and not allow big money and media to control traffic and content on the internet. Please vote and enact rules to maintain NET neutrality. Our democracy may some day depend on it.