

Keep control over the Internet in the hands of users and innovators like me! Don't let a handful of telephone and cable companies determine which Web sites you see and which you don't! I urge the FCC to protect Net Neutrality once and for all!