

I strongly object to having bulk billing be a legal practice for apartment complexes. It is not a just way to do business and removes a person's ability to make a choice about their cable company, if they even want TV service at all. Bulk billing is allowing apartment buildings to find other loopholes for erroneously charging their tenants for such services that have nothing to do with their tenant living there. Please outlaw bulk billing. Thank you for your time.