

The law that is currently in effect, that allows apartment buildings, condos, and other multi-unit living quarters, that requires tenants to subscribe to a broadcast provider, is clearly unfair to the tenant. Tenants should have their choice of providers, even the option of having no provider, without having to pay a penalty in any way whatsoever. I strongly feel this law should be stricken.

Steve Login