

The internet has changed the world, mostly in a positive way. I know there are problems to be worked out but it is so critical that you act on behalf of the American People. Let the public interest weigh more than the commercial interests of the giant telecom companies. In almost all aspects of American life, huge corporations and commercial interests control and dictate our destiny. Let that not be the case here. Please represent us!