

The Internet will be useless if it is controlled by cable & telecom companies. Losing the internet to control by cable companies will stifle entrepreneurship and innovation, neither of which the U.S. can sustain itself without. Please do the right thing and get Net Neutrality settled in as a law, I don't want my time online to be stifled and controlled by greedy corporate entities.