

Bulk Billing must be made illegal. Particularly for states like Indiana, where renters have few rights or recourse, the FCC must take a stand to prevent landlords and rental companies from exploiting a weakness in the system to take advantage of consumers. Rental complexes should not be allowed to charge extra fees simply because a consumer refuses to pay for their cable/internet service.