

Let's keep the big corporations from profiting from something that started free, has stayed free, and as free media, promises the benefit of free speech and free or low cost individual commerce worldwide. No corporation should be able to control and make a killing on something we all should share.