

The FCC must be the force that stands up for the rights of US citizens online. Please protect us against censorship and discrimination on the internet by passing strong Net Neutrality rules. The ability for individuals and small businesses to innovate and grow must not be abridged by limitations imposed by Internet service providers.

Thank you,
Scott Self