

We as adults should be allowed, and have the right to use the internet without any control over it. If we as parents are concerned then we should invest in programs that do the censoring of the sites we want to block. Net Neutrality is very important and should have no censorship to it.