

Leave the internet alone! Corporations have no business censoring internet usage. Qwest, AT&T and Comcast should provide access, that is all. They have interests which are contrary to individual freedoms on the internet. They should not be given the reins to the net in any way whatsoever.

Thanks

Don Boling