

Our country has always started with implicit freedoms - any limitation is argued case-by-case under the law: this applies to the internet just as it did to the telephone. Today, as digital broadband replaces analog voice, let's not start with our hands tied. I support net neutrality in it's fullest sense, and my future vote(s) will always reflect your present endorsement(s). Please apply your vision to the long term. CBI