

It is important that internet access remain unencumbered and uncensored by the companies providing that access. I don't want corporate America censoring or even biasing my web browsing, any more than I would want the government to do that. We must be able to get to any web site regardless of who our provider is. Please make sure our access is free from meddling.

Thank you.