

The FCC is suppose to protect the communications for the public. You have just ruined the Television system in favor of the stations and you do not protect us from the invasive techniques use on the screens during the programs. It is very annoying to the public. All of the public. The stations refuse to give us any programming information even tho it is not available to use.