

Our freedom as citizens has been eroded in so many ways across the last several years. Please allow us to keep the freedom that we have been enjoying to surf the web. Taking this away would be further discouraging to a citizenry who are already feeling quite helpless about truly controlling our fates. Mark Bleier