

I am in favor of a strong Net Neutrality Rule because:

An open Internet gives me freedom of expression - freedom to write and share my views and the freedom to find alternative viewpoints.

I want to read about people and cultures that are different from me.

I use the Internet to find alternative sources of news and information.

I want to e-mail my family and friends a link to pictures that reminds me of our last vacation together.

Net Neutrality means I don't need anyone's permission to create my own videos, and media execs aren't determining what's funny

An open Internet feeds the activist in me, allowing me to engage with my community and organize for social change online;

It's winter and I'd rather shop online, only I still want to support a local business;

I needed advice on how to prime and paint a room, and found a video online that taught me how to do it; and,

I DO NOT want to be censored.

Thank you.
