

* An open Internet gives me freedom of expression - freedom to write and share my views and the freedom to find alternative viewpoints; * I want other, smarter people to come up with the next Google, the next YouTube, the next Web application that I can't even imagine;

* I want to read about people and cultures that are different from me;

* Mainstream media make me scream expletives, and I use the Internet to find alternative sources of news and information.

* Net Neutrality means I don't need anyone's permission to create my own videos, and media execs aren't determining what's funny - we are;

* I come up with potential million-dollar ideas all the time, and some day, I just might start my own business;

* It's winter and I'd rather shop online, only I still want to support a local business;

* I don't want to be censored.

This is an issue with real consequences for real people. Don't give in to pressure from AT&T, Comcast, Verizon and their lobbyists. Stand with me and other Americans in support of a strong Net Neutrality rule.
