Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation
Open Internet and Broadband Practices proceedings
(GN Docket No. 09-191; WC Docket No. 07-52)

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Friday, January 22, Mobile Future held a meeting with Commission staff to discuss issues related to mobile broadband in the context of the above-referenced proceedings. Appearing on behalf of Mobile Future were Jonathan Spalter, Chairman; Allison Remsen, Executive Director; Ari Fitzgerald, Advisory Board Member; Peter Rysavy of Rysavy Research; Randy Fuller of Camiant; and Carolyn Brandon, Senior Industry and Innovation Fellow, Georgetown University Center for Business and Public Policy, McDonough School of Business. The Commission staff present were: Louis Peraertz of the Office of Commissioner Mignon Clyburn; Charles Mathias of the Office of Commissioner Meredith Attwell Baker; Tom Peters of the Office of Strategic Planning/Broadband Task Force; Jim Schlichting, Jane Jackson, Paul Murray, Martha Stancill, Thomas Derenge, Weiren Wang, Ty Bream, Matthew Nodine, Aaron Goldberger, and Ziad Sleem of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau; Michael Goldstein and Cathy Zima of the Wireline Competition Bureau; Richard Hovey of the Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau; and Ronald Repasi and Walter Johnston of the Office of Engineering and Technology.

Mobile Future's presentation in the meeting followed the attached slides, which were distributed to the attendees. Mobile Future also distributed copies of the Rysavy Research paper, "Net Neutrality Regulatory Proposals: Operational and Engineering Implications for Wireless Networks and the Consumers They Serve," which was filed in these dockets as part of Mobile Future's January 14, 2010 comments.

Sincerely,

Allison Remsen
Executive Director
