

As an American, I greatly value my freedom and the right to create a better future for myself, my family and my country. The Internet, as it is today, allows for this. Please do not change a thing. By allowing regulation of the Internet, our freedoms will be stifled. Please let us continue to reach for greatness by keeping the Internet as it is. Thank you.