

This is an issue of our constitutionally protected right to free speech. Having served in our Armed Forces for 25 years to preserve our rights, I am opposed to net censorship and to corporate/government/political control of the internet. Let the truth be known!