

We use a wilson cell booster at our fire station. I do a great deal of department business on my cell phone, cell service out here is weak and I cannot get reception without it. My cell phone also receives pages from our dispatch center. Our pager does not always work receiving a call, but for some reason my cell phone always gets the message. It would be a problem for us not to get our cell signal boosted out here.