

I am opposed to the request to change/modify the bandwidth for Digital and RTTY to 3KHz. I believe that this would have detrimental effect on CW communications and will hamper CW operation, which is an essential component of amateur radio as well as for emergency communications serving our society. The American Radio Relay League does not represent the majority body of amateurs in this proposal.