

I vehemently oppose the FCC and the Federal government's involvement and interference regarding the proposed rules. The proposed rules seem to bear little resemblance to the technical record in this proceeding. More importantly, the proposal raises the real and direct threat of crippling interference to 35 million Sirius XM Satellite Radio listeners and the 90 million satellite radio-equipped vehicles that will share the road with mobile WCS by 2015.