

The use of adjacent bandwidth to that of Sirius\XM Radio needs to be carefully regulated. Improper use could severely hurt the business of satellite radio which has been previously granted by the FCC. Correcton of problems that arise by Mobile communications after the fact is not acceptable and needs to be prevented by the FCC. I am speaking as an investor and satelite subscriber.