Re: Applications of Atlantic Tele-Network, Inc. and Celco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless for Consent To Assign or Transfer Control of Licenses and Authorizations WT Docket No. 09-119
Request for Second Protective Order Treatment of Ex Parte Communication

Dear Mr. Cohen:

By letter dated February 22, 2010, you described a meeting that occurred on February 19, 2010, involving representatives of Atlantic Tele-Network, Inc. ("ATN") and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Allied Wireless Communications Corporation ("AWCC"), with staff of the Commission and the U.S. Department of Justice.¹ Your letter indicated that ATN and AWCC representatives made a presentation during that meeting that included highly competitively sensitive information concerning the status of ATN's and AWCC's efforts in preparation for assuming ownership of the divestiture assets involved in the above-referenced proceeding and their plans for competing in the wireless marketplace. This presentation was reflected in a PowerPoint slide deck that you desire to submit in the subject docket in order to comply with the applicable Commission ex parte rules.²

Because of the highly competitively sensitive nature of the information reflected in the PowerPoint document, you request confirmation that the PowerPoint document can be submitted pursuant to the protections and terms of the Second Protective Order.³ For the reasons set forth in your letter, we confirm that the PowerPoint document discussed in your letter can be designated as "Highly
