

As an emergency planner for Chambersburg Hospital, I fully support allowing use of , during drills and in real events, FCC licensed amateur radio operators that are also hospital employees. It has been proven repeatedly, that you must maximize use of existing resources to assure optimum response in disaster.