

Most all TV programs have advertising. In my opinion those of us that pay for cable, satellite, etc. should not be charge to add additional compensation to broadcasters. Our fee should be only for the convenience of receptance delivery. If broadcasters want money indirectly from subscribers, commercials should go away!