

This is raising my subscription rates, lowering my choices of programming and effecting the revenue paid to the Federal Government through decreasing subscriptions to the aforementioned services by subscriber losses resulting in lost taxed revenue. The proposed merger is a bad idea and if I recall something that was specifically forbidden to happen during the initial promises made at satellite radios inception. This is monopolistic and bad for the consumer.