Re: Letter of Public Knowledge and Free Press

Petition of Public Knowledge et al. for Declaratory Ruling Stating that Text Messaging and Short Codes are Title II Services or are Title I Services Subject to Section 202 Nondiscrimination Rules, WT Docket No. 08-7

Dear Chairman Genachowski:

In a letter dated March 25, 2010, Public Knowledge and Free Press incorrectly allege that "Sprint has refused to permit CRS [Catholic Relief Services] to continue its text to call relief program" and that without Commission Action by March 29, 2010, Sprint will discontinue the code currently used on its network to support this program.

Sprint has supported Catholic Relief Services use of its current short message code and will continue to do so. Sprint has no plans to discontinue the use of this code on March 29, 2010, and no Commission action is required. Sprint will respond in greater detail to the other misrepresentations and allegations contained in Public Knowledge and Free Press letter shortly. Sprint wanted to clarify immediately, however, that the Catholic Relief Services code has been and will continue to be operational.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
