

Dear FCC,

Please preserve the open Internet, it has been an excellent tool for democratic advances in our country and many others. Do not allow corporations to control of the Internet.

Please create legislation that does not allow blocking, throttling, or censoring of Internet communications by telephone companies.

Ian Elwood