

I am the City Administrator for the City of North Bend, WA. I am speaking in favor of the exemption to allow City Employees the ability to participate in government sponsored emergency drills on behalf of their employers. We have employees with the City now that are actively involved with emergency operations and this is an important rule for the effective functioning of our operations center. Thank you.