Re: MB Docket No. 10-56

April 13, 2010

Dear Chairman Genachowski:

Cheyenne Village, a non-profit organization dedicated to helping people with disabilities lead happy, healthy, and fulfilling lives, supports the proposed partnership between Comcast with NBC Universal. Comcast makes a positive impact in the daily lives of those with disabilities in Colorado Springs, Colorado, and it is an important partner to our organization.

In our 38-year history, Cheyenne Village has provided assistance, training, and support to adults with developmental disabilities consistent with their cultural orientation and individual lifestyle. We operate five group homes, and serve individuals with autism, cerebral palsy, down syndrome, and mental retardation.

Comcast has been a long term partner in helping us fulfill our mission. In fact, we are privileged to have Comcast's Director of Government and External Affairs, Dave Sered, as a member of our Board of Directors. In addition, Comcast volunteers last year made our organization their choice site for Comcast Cares Day. This was an incredibly exciting moment for our program and those we serve, as hundreds of Comcast employees and their families stepped up. We are already planning this event in partnership with Comcast for 2010.

I would be remiss if I did not mention Comcast's kindness in helping Cheyenne Village spread its message to a broader audience. Our program has been featured on Comcast Newsmakers time and again, bringing greater attention to our work and celebrating the achievements we have made for people with disabilities in Colorado Springs.

I know that we are a small organization, but we think our mission is quite large. Comcast has taken notice and shown us that they consider our efforts to be of great importance. We hope you take Comcast's efforts to support our community into consideration as you review the Comcast and NBC Universal partnership.

Sincerely,
