

How is Commercial Media Serving Your Community? It is not serving my community -- we need to de-consolidate our media. We have too much corporate control over what is put on the news. People also tend to find one group of media that fit their way of thinking without getting the unbiased facts (of which there is less and less of and what appears to me to be news propaganda -- I see this definitely more on the conservative side as they own most of the media.