

The Constitution guarantees the freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of expression. Where does it say, "freedom only if you agree with the people in 'power'? Freedom applies to everyone, whether you agree with them or not. This marxist crap has to stop!! You either believe in the founding documents or you don't. If you don't, then go to another country. This one is a FREE society under the rule of the laws laid out by our founding Fathers. And the Constitution is our rock and shield against tyranny.
