

Are the ISP's intended actions going to benefit the majority of Americans? The FCC must keep the Internet open and free of corporate gatekeepers. Are the ISP's going to act in favor of the American people? OR ARE YOU?

You and I both know These telecommunications powerhouses will act in favor of their stock investors. Please do not let the opportunity to act in favor of the American people pass by.

Just once let the small axe cut down the big tree. Prove to me capitalism doesn't always win, I fear otherwise.
