

As an amateur operator as well as a Military Auxiliary Radio Service (MARS) I see the importance in having emergency drills to include as many operators participating as possible. Experience is the key to efficiency. I am all for the change in rules as long as there is no normal day to day operations being performed on amateur frequencies. Thank you for your time.

Robert Payne

KF4MHG

AFA4GO