

Deaf people need to have the same equality in communication line hearing people do. Video messaging, 10 digit phone numbers, clear, fast and uninterrupted communications through a relay. This is a shame to close down those services, with technology we have today, it is inaccessible, we have waited 75 years after invention of telephone. You know telephone was supposed to be hearing and when it was invented.